

Dear

Mental health has taken the back seat to medical and physical health for way too long. For too many years, individuals living with mental health challenges have been ashamed to talk about it or even felt they were alone with their struggles. For too many individuals, their loved ones, neighbors, colleagues, and community lacked the education and did not know how to help.

Remapping Minds is working hard to change that from an individual and community approach. Through our advocacy initiatives, we are making strides by unveiling mental health struggles as more normalized than ever. Through our psychoeducational interventions, we are cultivating the reality of recovery. Through our individual and support theory-based interventions, we highlight the importance of speaking up and reaching out.

Please support our mission of bringing mental health awareness out of the shadows by sponsoring our Unveiling for Mental Health Awareness on Self-Sabotaging Behavior.

This event, titled Get Ready to Unveil That Self-Sabotaging Behavior, will attract 200 male and female attendees from the Metro Atlanta communities of different socio-economic statuses. We are organizing a mental health conference on April 20, 2024, at the Georgia Tech Hotel and Conference Center, one of the city's premier new event spaces in the heart of Atlanta's vibrant Technology Square. Join us for a fun-filled all-day event with guest speakers, attendees' interactive exercises, a buffet lunch, and hors d' oeuvres. We would love to have your support as a sponsor.

Your Event sponsorship will benefit the thousands of adults and their families affected by mental health challenges. This event will make a positive difference in the lives of many people who struggle with mental health issues, as well as raise awareness and reduce stigma in our society. So please, celebrate with us. Celebrate our progress in bringing awareness to mental health, the life-changing advancements that are on the horizon, and the brave individuals who are telling their stories to pave the way for so many others.

By sponsoring our conference through a monetary donation, you will help us achieve our mission and gain valuable benefits for your organization.

Sponsorship benefits are outlined on the following pages. For more information, contact Eric Harmon, Director of Communications and Marketing, at eric.harmon@remappingminds.com or (404)271-0018.

We look forward to seeing you!
